Section IDISCLAIMER

Academic Section, IIT Bombay does not encourage registration rule exceptions. Students should be aware of the 'registration rule exception override' on their own. This facility has only been made available by the academic section at source. Students should be aware that 'override' must necessarily be endorsed by the competent authority. The document generated through the online registration system is a signed document. If the signed document is submitted to the Academic office, the registration shall not be deemed as complete.

Certificate to be signed by the student

1. I hereby certify that I have read and understood 'registration rule exception override', printed on the form.
2. I hereby declare that I shall not hold IIT Bombay responsible for performance degradation, or any other eventuality arising out of the 'registration rule exception override' option for the courses.
3. I understand that the 'registration rule exception override' is a document where the exception override has been endorsed by a competent authority (where the competent authority is defined by the academic section) submitted by me to the academic office.
4. I understand that such a printable document shall be generated through the online registration interface.
5. I hereby accept that if I do not submit the duly signed document (where the competent authority is defined by the academic section) 'registration rule exception override' document, the said course shall be cancelled by the academic office.
6. I hereby understand and accept that if I submit the 'registration rule exception override' document, the registration shall not be deemed as complete and the courses shall be cancelled by the academic office.
